

Passion 4 Teaching: Mohan's Drive

Motivated, creative and versatile, Joseph Mohan was a Banker, Trainer and Chief Financial Officer before turning into an academic in 1997. What caused the change? Mohan responds, "It's my passion for teaching and the conviction I could be a catalyst in transforming the lives of students."

Mohan currently teaches the International Business Management Program. He bagged two coveted awards: College Award for Contribution to Teaching & Learning (2000), and Award for Innovative Excellence in Teaching, Learning & Technology (2006). His obsession with guiding students to become creative and critical thinkers saw him develop innovative e-learning methods, such as:

- e-Knowledge Repository
- NoteSSSwap
- X-Word Puzzle
- Learning 4 Understanding
- e-Cases & Interactive Tests
- Web-based Evaluating & Self-Learning

His online video teaches the ABCs of Note Taking skills. He shared these innovations in several international conferences.

Mohan is a strong believer that learning should be fun and integrates a variety of activities to help students apply learning to real world issues.

Click here to learn more about Mohan's background and academic interest.