Quality Housing : Partnering for Change

Implementation Plan Phase I

Provi	ding Quality Products and Services to Customers
I.1	To provide a 10-year structural guarantee to all Home Ownership Scheme and Private Sector Participation Scheme developments from the date of completion. (Para. 5.14) (Rec 21)
I.2	To establish an intake hot-line so that tenants/owners may report building defect conveniently (New Rec 41)
I.3	To require contractors to rectify defects after in-take speedily through setting up Customer Service Teams adjusting the release of retention money by the HD and extending the defect liability period to 2 years. (Para 5.13) (Rec 20)
I.4	To introduce short-term measures to address the production peak, such as outsourcing final flat inspection to ensure consistency of handover standard. (Para. 8.8) (Rec 40)
Reva	mping the Piling Process
I.5	To introduce short-term measures for safeguarding the quality of piling works. (Para. 8.3) (Rec 37)
I.6	To improve the quality of piling works in the long run. (Para. 8.4) (Rec 38)
Reinf	orcing Site Supervision
I.7	To reimburse site supervision cost for providing extra staff for enhanced requirements to safeguard the quality of supervision. (New Rec 42)
I.8	To deploy and maintain sufficient and competent supervisory staff by the HD, consultants and contractors or all sites during project implementation. (Para. 5.6) (Rec 17)
I.9	To strengthen on-site supervision by providing resident professionals for piling and large-scale building projects. (Para. 5.6) (Rec 16)
I.10	To streamline handover inspection procedures and define clear acceptance authority during project completion with a view to providing clear and consistent project handover standards to contractors. (Para 5.11) (Rec 19)
I.11	To provide induction training to inhouse and consultant site staff to reinforce site supervision (New Rec 43)
Refor	ming Listing and Tendering Practices
I.12	To secure competent consultants from the tendering system. (Para. 4.21) (Rec 12)
I.13	To secure competent contractors from the tendering system. (Para. 4.20) (Rec 11)
I.14	To enhance the objectiveness and independence of the disciplinary mechanism. (Para. 4.16) (Rec 10)
I.15	To strengthen the representativeness and coverage of building contractors' performance appraisal system (Para. 4.13) (Rec 8)
I.16	To put PASS 2000 on trial for evaluating its effectiveness. (New Rec 44)
Estab	lishing a Partnering Culture
I.17	To reinforce the partnership relationship between the BC and the HD by reviewing BC's structure and operations. (New Rec 46)
I.18	To reinforce stakeholders' commitments in delivering quality housing through drawing up a Quality Partnering Charter and highlighting their participation in each project by publicizing their names in sale brochures and completed developments. (Para. 4.4) (Rec 1)
I.19	To clearly define key stakeholders' roles and responsibilities and to maximize benefits of their contributions and interaction. (Para. 4.6) (Rec 2)
I.20	To strengthen the communication channels with key stakeholders at the strategic level through establishing an annual partnering conference by the HA and regular workshops by the HD's directorate staff. (Para. 4.10) (Rec 4)
I.21	To reinforce the partnering spirit with contractors and consultants during project implementation through setting up partnering meetings and review workshops by the HD's project teams at the commencement, implementation and completion stages of the project respectively. (Para. 4.10) (Rec 5)
I.22	To allow sufficient time for contractors to deliver quality housing by extending the normal construction period of new piling and building works by 1 and 2 months respectively. (Para 7.10) (Rec 32)

- period of new piling and building works by 1 and 2 months respectively. (Para. 7.10) (Rec 32)
- I.23 To revise contractual arrangements for achieving more equitable risk-sharing. (Para. 4.8) (Rec 3)
- I.24 To establish 'Site Works Forum' for quick resolution of site problems. (New Rec 45)

Re-engineering Departmental OperationsI.25 To reform the operations of the HD's Development and Construction Branch. (Para. 7.13) (Rec 34)
