

Multiple Consultancy Projects Concerning the Promotion of Wellbeing in Viet Nam

Date of Submission

09-Apr-2013

Department

Asian and International Studies

Principal Investigator

Dr Jonathan London

Project duration

01 May 2008 - 01 January 2013

Source of funding

Nil

Link

http://www6.cityu.edu.hk/class/ktproject/data/stafflan/Multiple_consultancy_VN.pdf

Description

Between January 2008 and January 2013 I have completed numerous projects for various international development agencies in Viet Nam, including:

- United Nations Development Program, Project on Essential Services, September 2012-January 2013
- United Nations, Contributing author (two papers), Viet Nam Human Development Report, 2010-11
- United Nations & Like-Minded Donors, Consultant, Viet Nam's Development Challenges, Governance and Social Policy, 2009-2010
- UNICEF Viet Nam, Paper on Child Poverty for Mid-term Poverty Assessment for the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam, 2009.
- UNICEF Viet Nam, Food Prices and Vulnerability, Viet Nam, 2008.
- UNICEF Viet Nam, Strategy document for UNICEF in a Middle-Income Viet Nam, 2008.

The project link provides summary information on this work. There are, in addition, a number of attached documents which represent the final products of this work or summaries thereof.

Expected outcomes

These outputs have contributed substantially to development policy and advocacy in Viet Nam.