

THE INTERNATIONAL BUILDING CONSERVATION CONFERENCE 2011

Victorian Splendour by Nina Ludwig, Art of Building 2010

'philosophies and practicalities'

MERCHANT ADVENTURERS' HALL, FOSSGATE, YORK, UK

Wednesday 5th to Thursday 6th October 2011

In association with...

The latest on climate change, new standards and qualifications in Europe, innovation in structural repair and comparing practices in understanding and conserving sites across the globe. These are just some of the topics to be studied at the CIOB 2011 International Building Conservation Conference. Taking place in York, England on 5th and 6th October 2011, this two day event includes study tours dedicated to both understanding historic buildings and the practicalities of building conservation.

The conference has been developed in partnership with English Heritage, the National Trust and the Institute of Historic Building Conservation.

The CIOB invites attendees from all countries to attend this international event, which will include study tours of York Minster and other historic sites within the City of York led by experts and a conference reception and dinner on the evening of the first day.
