WHY NOT!

The New Education Hub
According to Quacquarelli Symonds World University Rankings of recent years, at least four of Hong Kong’s higher education institutions – including City University of Hong Kong (CityU) – are well established around the world’s top 50. Our excellent academic and research achievements are internationally recognised.

We Speak the World Languages
Hong Kong has 2 official languages: English and Chinese. For most universities including CityU, the medium of instruction is English.

The Global Role We Play
Hong Kong has the world’s freest economy and is seen as the world’s 4th leading financial centre.
A Safe Place to Live and Study
Hong Kong is one of the cities with the lowest crime rate in the world. According to 2016 Quacquarelli Symonds (QS), Hong Kong ranked 8th in the world as the best student city.

“Ni Hao!” Welcome to the Gateway to China
Hong Kong maintains close ties with the rest of China. It takes just one hour to travel to the closest mainland city by train. As the gateway to China, Hong Kong is also one of the world’s largest recipients of foreign direct investment.

East x West
Hong Kong was a British colony until 1997 when it returned to China. Explore our food, festivals and architecture, which integrate the East and West in perfect harmony... and experience how history has blended to create the vibrant, multicultural city of today.

You Are Not Alone
Over 620,000 expatriates work and live in Hong Kong, enjoying the freedoms of speech, religion, human rights and the protection of law... just like the rest of the city’s residents.

What’s Next?
All non-local students can enjoy one year of visa-free stay after graduation from degree studies in Hong Kong. Many choose to embark on a career with one of the 3,800 regional headquarters and offices of multinational corporations, or to pursue further studies here in Hong Kong.
The Run Run Shaw Creative Media Centre, designed by world-renowned architect Daniel Libeskind, epitomises the leading role CityU plays in education for creative media and communication professionals. Its inviting exhibition space offers an international meeting point for scholars, professionals and the community. It has been selected as one of the 10 most spectacular university buildings in the world by Emporis in 2014.
City University of Hong Kong (CityU)

CityU has achieved phenomenal growth since its establishment in 1984. It now has 20,000 students enrolled in more than 130 programmes at the associate degree, undergraduate and postgraduate levels. Aspiring to become a leading global university excelling in research and professional education, CityU aims to nurture its students’ talents and create knowledge that can be applied to support social and economic advancement.

Notes
• Students may be required to take additional language courses depending on the entry qualification in English/Chinese. For details about the English Placement Test and exemption arrangements, please visit the website of the English Language Centre.
• Major and college requirements should not exceed 72 credits. However, with Senate’s approval, the colleges and schools may set a higher limit to meet professional accreditation requirements.
• Students admitted with Advanced Standing will not be entitled to additional credit transfer on the basis of their qualifications attained prior to admission to the University. Instead, students may apply for course exemption based on prior study. Credit units are not earned for an exempted course.
• Individual academic units may seek exemption from the above credit requirement, with Senate approval.

Hong Kong has long been regarded as one of the most influential and productive creative media environments in the world. CityU’s School of Creative Media plays a central role in providing the talent that forges this well-earned reputation. The jewel in the crown of creative media education at CityU is the state-of-the-art Run Run Shaw Creative Media Centre designed by renowned architect Daniel Libeskind. This striking landmark is a focal point for the development of creative media in Asia.

CityU has over 370 partner institutions in 43 countries/regions around the world. Internship is an integral part of the student experience. Every year, over 2,600 CityU students take part in internships and nearly 30% of placements are outside Hong Kong, in the USA, UK, France, Germany, Finland, Australia, Singapore, Korea, Japan and Mainland China, etc.
FROM EYES TO EYES: AN APPLICATION OF THE EYE-TRACKING LABORATORY

Undergraduate Champion (Individual), Lau Shing Fung

An eye-tracking study on gaze patterns between single and partnered individuals examines the association between visual attention and relationships. The study sheds light on the patterns of eye gaze projected on human figures in interpersonal psychological research. The findings support that participants in loving, committed relationships pay less visual attention to the opposite sex than their single counterparts, and the gaze patterns for the male and the female participants are different. The employment of the highly technological eye-tracking machine generates gaze patterns as behavioral measures – for example, the location and the duration that a participant focuses on a particular scene.

EXTREME ENVIRONMENTS PROGRAMME: ANTARCTICA

Interdisciplinary teams of CityU students conducted meaningful research in Antarctica in 2013. The Programme explored how artists, researchers and scientists working together could collect and interpret environmental data using new forms of creativity and visualization, and exhibits the types of initiatives encouraged under the Discovery-enriched Curriculum.

The Aurora

Color spectrum data was studied in the light in Antarctica and Tsim Sha Tsui, Hong Kong and compared in a 360-degree animation created for a 360-degree theatre.

Discovery-enriched Curriculum (DEC)

The goal of DEC is for all students to have the chance to make an original discovery. It is believed that this approach to teaching and learning will motivate and ignite a passion for knowledge and discovery in our students, prepare them to practise professionally at and beyond the level of international standards, and promote a culture of knowledge and innovation that spurs local and global advancements in professional practice.

CityU Campus

The CityU campus sits in the heart of Kowloon peninsula, just a short walk from the Kowloon Tong station of the MTR (Mass Transit Railway), at the junction of East Rail and Kwun Tong lines. The campus is easily accessible from all parts of Hong Kong and is only 45 minutes by train from Shenzhen and 2 hours from Guangzhou, both major cities in southern China.

CityU is close to Festival Walk, one of Hong Kong’s major shopping malls with over 200 shops and restaurants, an ice-skating rink, a cinema and a supermarket. You can find almost everything you need at Festival Walk.

The nearby Nam Shan residential neighbourhood offers a handful of shops, supermarkets and Chinese restaurants, as well as a local market that supplies the community with fresh food and vegetables.
