SHARPEN YOUR LEGAL RESEARCH SKILLS WITH US

Students
Attend relevant Law Library Workshops that are offered in both semester A and B. Come and learn how to find law journals and secondary legal materials, how to use law databases, cite legal information and more. Build up the skills that are essential for the study of and research on law.
http://www.cityu.edu.hk/lib/instruct/course/law.htm

Research guides
Also not to be missed out are our research guides. These are step by step guides covering a broad spectrum of topics, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Civil Procedure and Civil Justice Reform, Intellectual Property Law, Maritime Law ...
http://libguides.library.cityu.edu.hk/home

Faculty and staff
Have a librarian go to your class to show the resources and skills related to a specific topic or area of law. Library training has been incorporated into the curriculum of several undergraduate and postgraduate law courses. An online library tutorial, Locating Common Law Materials is now available on Canvas. Teachers are welcome to integrate it into your course site as an alternative option to face-to-face training. Contact the Law Librarian for appropriate arrangement.

Gateway to global legal information
To help you track down open access and authoritative information, we compile a legal information portal, http://www.cityu.edu.hk/lib/collection/law/subres/law.htm. With a few clicks, you can quickly find court judgments, statutes, related NGOs, professional associations around the world and a lot more.

FACILITIES AND EQUIPMENT AT YOUR SERVICE

We provide meeting rooms for faculties and staff, group discussion rooms for students. Computing, printing, copying facilities and WAN access are also available.
