

How to find databases / e-books / e-journals / periodical articles?

E-Resources to find	When you want...	How?
databases	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To find databases on a subject 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> At the Library homepage, select “E-Resources → Databases → Subject List”.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To find a particular database (i.e. when you know the database title already) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> At the Library homepage, select “E-Resources → Databases → Title List”.
e-books	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To find e-books in a specific e-book collection 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> At the Library homepage, select “E-Resources → E-Books”, then select the desired e-book collection.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To find e-books in all Library e-book collections 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do a Keyword/Phrase search in the Classic Library Catalogue, limiting material type to “EBOOK”.
e-journals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To find out what e-journals in your discipline are available to you 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> At the Library homepage, select “E-Resources → E-Journals → Subject List”. In the Serials Collection Subset of the Classic Library Catalogue, do a Keyword/Phrase search in the “Subject” field, limiting material type to “E-JOURNAL” (for finding e-journals on more specific subjects).
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To browse a particular e-journal 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do a Title search in the Classic Library Catalogue for the journal title. At the Library homepage, select “E-Resources → E-Journals → Title List”. Look up the journal title in the list.
periodical articles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To find an article when you have the citation in hand (e.g. an article in your course reading list or in the bibliography of a book or a journal article). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use the SFX Citation Linker (path: Library homepage → E-Resources → SFX → Citation Linker) to check if electronic copy of the desired article is available and to link to it. Do a Title search in the Classic Library Catalogue for the journal title to see if the Library holds the electronic journal and/or printed journal. If only printed journal is available, note the call number and the location (mostly the Serials Collection) and get it within the Library or request from the Shatin Branch Library. Look up the journal in the title list of e-journals on the Library web site and navigate to the desired article.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To find periodical articles on a topic 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Select an article database (i.e. index/abstracts/full-text database) from the subject list of databases on the Library web site to search. If no online full text is available for the desired articles (you may check the availability of full text via SFX if you are using an SFX-enabled database), search the Library Catalogue to check for printed holdings in the Library.