

13 January 2017

Professor Paul Chu
Chair Professor of Materials Engineering
Department of Physics and Materials Science

Dear Professor Chu,

I am delighted to inform you that you have been selected by our committee to receive one of The President's Awards (TPAs) 2016. TPAs recognize faculty who have made exemplary contributions to research and professional education that have helped City University of Hong Kong achieve local and global distinction. As a token of the University's appreciation, you will receive an award amount of HK$50,000 through the January 2017 payroll.

Please accept my heartfelt congratulations on behalf of the University, and I wish you continued success with your work.

Yours sincerely,

Way Kuo
