

Hyperbolic Phase Transitions and Chapman-Jouguet Detonations

Andrea Corli

Department of Mathematics

University of Bari, Italy

corli@dm.uniba.it

Abstract

We discuss some recent results about global existence and continuous dependence of weak solutions to hyperbolic models of phase transitions, in one space dimension. We focus in particular on the case of sonic phase boundaries; applications to elastodynamics as well as to Chapman-Jouguet detonations are provided.