UNIQLO Scholarship Program 2019/20

UNIQLO Hong Kong has launched a 5-year scholarship program designed to encourage young people to take a leading role in society since 2015/16. The scholarship program provides not only financial support to students, but also an opportunity for them to better understand the business operations, corporate structure, personnel and strategic development of an international company.

Scholarship Value	• HK$20,000 (10 awards) • 5-day trip to Japan during end of June to early of July and a chance to have direct communication with the Top Management
Eligibility	• Hong Kong permanent identity card holder • Full-time Year 3 or Year 4 student; studying 1st bachelor's program at one of the universities in Hong Kong • Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above • Have an international vision, and aspire to become global business professionals • Be Responsible, self-motivated, and able to represent Hong Kong University students • Enthusiastic in participation of extra-curricular and group activities • Positive mind and have the courage to face different challenges • Able to demonstrate strong leadership skills and teamwork ability • Eager to obtain international business networking opportunities
Application Deadline	16 February 2020 (Sunday)
Details	• Complete an application form along with latest academic transcript and resume • Send the documents to scholarship@uniqlo.com.hk with subject "Application for UNIQLO HK Scholarship_Full Name" before 16 February 2020 (Sunday) Please refer to the link below for more details: https://www.fastretailing.com/employment/en/uniqlo/hk_mo/graduate/scholarship/
Enquiries	Email: scholarship@uniqlo.com.hk