

Li Kwan Hung Education Fund 2023/2024

The Li Kwan Hung Education Fund 2023/2024 is intended to assist students with disabilities studying with their able-bodied counterparts in local educational institutes at various levels.

Scholarship Value	Based on the level of study and the nature of disability of the applicant, a grant could be considered for the following eligible items. The grant for each applicant will normally not exceed $5,000. The amount for each grantee will depend on his/her financial situation and need, as well as the number of grantees approved by the Association's Finance Committee.
Eligibility	Applicant should meet all the following criteria: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Hong Kong permanent residents;2. students with physical disabilities, intellectual disabilities, special educational needs (SENs) (including autism / attention deficit and hyperactivity disorder / dyslexic), chronic illness, visual impairment or hearing impairment;3. full-time students studying with their able-bodied counterparts in local educational, technical or vocational training institutes at primary, secondary, post-secondary, university or post-graduate level;4. in need of financial assistance for educational purposes.5. estimated expenses of the applicant for the academic year are not covered by other bursaries or funds (according to the status as at the deadline of application).
Application Deadline	13 October 2023 (Friday)
Details	Guidelines and Application Form: https://hkphab.org.hk/en-gb/financial-assistance-en Each application form should be duly completed by the applicant and recommended by a responsible officer of the educational/welfare organization or a government department, e.g. school principal, social worker, dean of students, etc. All applications must reach the Executive Director of the Hong Kong PHAB Association at Unit 1402, The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups Building, 21 Pak Fuk Road, North Point, Hong Kong not later than mid-October of each calendar year. Late applications or applications without submitting the required information or supporting documents before the due date will not be considered
Enquiries	For enquiry, please telephone the Association's Headquarters at 2551 4161.