Psychological Counselling

Life is full of challenges and consultation with a counsellor can be a rewarding experience for personal growth.
Service Objectives
The psychological counselling service offered by Student Development Services helps students overcome their personal difficulties and develop their potential so that they can lead a more fulfilling and rewarding life.

How We Can Help
While educational experience in the university is both exciting and fulfilling, it can also be stressful at times. You would benefit from seeing a friendly and experienced counsellor if you have the following concerns:

- Adapting to university life
- Emotional management
- Interpersonal relationships
- Love and sex
- Mental health
- Personal growth
- Self-understanding
- Study difficulties

Each counselling session lasts for 50 minutes and all information is kept strictly confidential.

How to Make an Appointment
1. Come to our office at Student Development Services, 6/F, Bank of China (Hong Kong) Complex
2. Call us at 3442 8478 during office hours.

Referral by Staff
With the student’s consent, staff can refer the student for counselling. Staff may either ask the student to contact us directly or arrange an appointment on the student’s behalf.

What to Do in Case of Emergency
