Application for Continuation of Study outside Hong Kong in a Part-time Mode (SGS17)

Notes:

1. Students who wish to apply for continuation of study outside Hong Kong in a part-time mode should submit their applications at least two months in advance via their supervisors. Please note that only applications with valid reasons will be considered.
2. The required residence period for research degree studies is equivalent to half of the relevant (normal) period of study. Students who have not fulfilled the said requirement are not eligible to apply for continuation of study outside Hong Kong.
3. If the application is approved, the student's study mode will be changed to part-time, if applicable. Those who wish to study full-time upon their return to study in Hong Kong should: (a) submit a request upon their return for a change of study mode (via SGS02 Form), and (b) (for non-local students only) ensure that they have a valid student visa for their full-time study.
4. Students, who change their study mode from full-time to part-time within the University's normal study period, will be switched to self-financing mode of study. They are required to pay self-financing tuition fee and are not eligible to apply for financial assistance supported by the government fund.
