

CCCL Chinese Law for Students Series

A Virtual Tour of Huawei: Technologies, Ownership, and Corporate Governance

Moderator:
Wang Jiangyu
(Professor & Director of CCCL, School of Law,
City University of Hong Kong)

About the Seminar:

This virtual tour of Huawei, China's most advanced technology company, is the first event in the Chinese Law for Students Series organized by the Centre for Chinese and Comparative Law (CCCL). The series are part of the CCCL's knowledge transfer efforts intended to provide opportunities for law students in Hong Kong to engage in the research and practice of Chinese law. In this virtual tour, senior corporate officers in Huawei will introduce Huawei's corporate ownership, corporate governance, its global operation as a China-based multinational company, as well as, its cutting-edge technologies and their implications for the future of our society.

Date: 26 October 2021 (Tuesday)

Time: 2:00pm – 5:00pm (HKT)

Venue: This Seminar will be conducted via Zoom

Language: English

The event is only open to the students of City University of Hong Kong School of Law. To participate in this Seminar, please send your name, title and affiliation to lwrcl@cityu.edu.hk for registration, on first-come, first-served basis by 24 October 2020 (Sunday). The Seminar's Meeting ID will be sent to successful registrants via email.

For enquiries and further details about this Seminar, please email to lwrcl@cityu.edu.hk.

Please be informed that any video or photos taken in this activity, which may include your image, name, etc. may be used in our publicity materials or the media for the purpose of promoting CityU School of Law and its Centre for Chinese and Comparative Law.*