^ Students can take either LW5649 (3 credits) or LW5649B (6 credits).

Depending upon the interest of students and the course offering in future, these specialised streams may be modified. The offering of the above courses may be reviewed and amended from time to time subject to the availability of the teaching staff. We shall keep students informed regarding the offering of the elective courses.

Students who choose or do not choose to specialise in any one area will receive the award title as Juris Doctor (法律博士).

In pursuance of City University's policy on streamlining award titles, it has been decided that from 2015-16 onwards the award titles will not include areas of specialisation. Rather the specialised area, if elected by a student, will appear on the transcript.

Electives

Apart from electives offered by the JD Programme, students may choose electives out of the courses offered by the LLM and LLMArbDR Programmes to pursue their areas of interest.

Recommended structure and sequence

We would encourage students to complete the programme in 3 years but they may study the programme at a quicker pace. The maximum period of study which is applicable to students of 2010 cohort and thereafter is five years. (Please refer to Annex A and B).

Recommended Programme Structure for students aspiring to join the PCLL programme – Juris Doctor (full time)

R = JD-required course; * = PCLL-required course

Please note LW5552 Independent Research will be offered in Semester A, Semester B and Summer Term. For LW6137E Dissertation, students can take it in Semester A and B or only Semester A, or only Semester B. LW5552 requires the prerequisite of LW5622. If a student opts for Dissertation (6 credits) instead of Independent Research, the Dissertation should be completed preferably in Semester A, or Semester B, or in both Semesters A and B. The course of Independent Research can also be taken in the University of Belgrade in Serbia in summer (subject to confirmation).

G-LEAP = Global Legal Education and Awareness Project (G-LEAP).

Taught postgraduate elective will not be offered in summer.

Non-local students who have been granted permission by the Immigration Department for 'full-time studies' must follow the minimum credit unit load specified in the University's Academic Regulations for full-time students (i.e. 12 credit units in a single semester). Exceptions for reduced study load are permitted for the final graduating semester upon approval by the Head of the academic department or as determined by the Examination Board in any semester for students in academic difficulty.
