

School of Law continues to hold programmes for Chinese judges

19 April 2010

Professor Wang Guiguo and Dr Gao Jinghong (left)

School of Law (SLW) has continuously provided quality legal education to Chinese judges under the agreements with the Supreme People's Court (SPC) and National Judges College (NJC). Judges who had attended the Master of Laws Programme and the Advanced Programme for Chinese Senior Judges offered by SLW considered it was an invaluable opportunity and experience.

Professor Wang and Associate Dean Gu Minkang visited Dr Gao Jinghong, the newly appointed NJC President on 19 April 2010. Dr Gao considered highly of the Chinese judges programme. He strongly expressed the need and importance for a continuation of both programmes. At a banquet hosted by Justice Wan E'xiang, SPC Vice President also gave positive remarks. He discussed with Professor Wang and Mr Gu on enhancement of the Chinese judges programme and future novel collaboration.