Workshop B

Computer Crimes - Attacks and Prevention
Speaker: Prof. Samuel Chanson

Abstract:
In this talk, I'll discuss why computer crime is on the rise and classify the different types of criminal elements. This will be followed by some common attack methods and a general discussion on what can be done in reducing the risks. We conclude that computer crime is not solely a technical problem and cannot be solved technical solutions alone.