Multi–Scale Techniques Using Radial Basis Functions

S. Hartmann†, Robert Schaback‡, and Holger Wendland‡
†Gerling-Konzern Lebensversicherungs-AG, Mathematik/Entwicklung, Germany
‡Institut für Numerische und Angewandte Mathematik, Universität Göttingen, Germany
E-mail: {hartmann,schaback,wendland}@math.uni-goettingen.de

The talk covers recent results on multiscale radial basis function approximations. Linear convergence between levels can be proven under different circumstances. This supports the observed behavior of numerical examples and allows efficient methods with linear complexity. Special attention is given to adaptive greedy methods using dictionaries and working on different scales.