Bachelor of Social Sciences in Public Policy and Bachelor of Laws

This double degree programme equips students with broad knowledge of public policy and laws to serve the needs of Hong Kong and the international community.

Highlights:

• Gain a comprehensive education in public policy, public management, and political science with specialisation in an interested area
• Understand comprehensively public policy, public management and political developments in Hong Kong, China and the contemporary global world
• Acquire a critical understanding of law and legal institutions
• Opportunities for internship and/or overseas exchange
• Recognised qualification from professional body