Part II Course Details

1. Abstract

(A 150-word description about the course)

The main focus of this course is the changes of Chinese women's lives in historical context. We will focus on three main themes: I. The historical changes of women's lives in ancient China; II. The lives of women from different social classes; III. The legacy of the lives of traditional Chinese women today. This course will cover the three themes above, focusing on topical issues in the lectures. Students will participate in different kinds of learning activities such as lectures, tutorials, oral presentations, online discussions, one-day study tour, video watching, group webpage design, individual term paper and etc.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

(CILOs state what the student is expected to be able to do at the end of the course according to a given standard of performance.)

A3: Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

3. Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs)

(TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)

TLA	Brief Description	CILO No.						Hours/week (if applicable)
		1	2	3	4
TLA1 Lectures	a. The instructor will and lecture in class, with small group discussions. Through the study of various topics, students will understand the lives and culture of Chinese women as well as the relationship between women and the development of Chinese history. b. To prepare for class, the instructor will upload the reference materials for that particular lecture onto Blackboard and raise several questions for students to think about before lecture. c. During the lectures, different types of multi-media teaching tools including films, videos, photos, and online resources will use to stimulate student's interests and guide them to self-directed learning. d. 20-25minutes in-class group learning will be practiced. Students will form into small groups and engage in the following activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students will be given a topic related to the lecture. ● Students are required to discuss and write down their personal opinions. ● Students will share their opinions among the groupmates. ● Students will share their outcomes with class. ● Instructor will conclude and comment the outcomes. e. A five minutes summary of each lecture will be conducted. Students are	√	√	√	√			/

	required to write a summary to show what they have learnt in each lecture. This will help the instructor to assess students' learning and their needs. f. A non-grading quiz including multiple choices and short questions will conduct in final lecture. The purposes of this non-grading quiz are for revision and help instructor to assess all students are achieving course intended outcomes. Prominent scholars will be invited to give a seminar in order to widen student's scopes.
TLA2 : Tutorials	a. Group of 4-5 students will select a topic, which will reflect what they have learnt during the lectures and they will give an oral presentation. b. The presentation topics will match the lecture topics, four presentation topics are assigned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Characteristics of Women Education in Ming-Qing Periods ● The Purpose and Influence of heqin (Intermarriage between Chinese imperial princesses and nomadic rulers of Inner Asia) ● The Debate of Women's Talent and Virtue ● Concubines in Qing China c. The instructor will encourage students to express themselves using various interactive means, e.g. PowerPoint, edited segments of movies, role-playing, debates etc. This will engage both the	√	√	√				/

	students giving the report as well as those listening to it and increase their interest in learning with the lively presentation of the contents of the topic. d. The group delivering presentation must have thoroughly studied and researched their topic and worked as a team on the collection, reading, selection, integration, analysis of the resources. Each group member should present solely on their part. They need to raise an issue of reflection and lead the classmates into participating in the discussion. The instructor will assist the students to engage in the discussion. e. The instructor and audiences will give feedback and comments on the contents of the presentation while the presentation group will have to reflect on their performance. Evaluation sheets will be delivered to audiences. They require handing in a simple and clear assessment report on the presentation.
TLA 3 : Online Discussion and Reflection	a. The establishment of online discussions is to coincide with the lecture topics. The objective is to deepen students' understanding of what was taught in class through discussions and questions and answers so they can apply what they have learnt to analyze the reading materials or objects or current affairs. This will develop their ability to reason and think independently. b. Short pieces of reading and newspaper cutting will be				√		/

	posted on blackboard forum. Instructor will set a discussion topic. The topic maybe in form of comments, questions, responses, debates, discussion, and review of lectures, tutorials and readings. c. Students should write at least 600 Chinese words (for Chinese class) and 300 English words (for English class) for each discussion and response session. d. Online discussions also encourage students to provide feedback to one another so they can exchange their thoughts and understand the material from multiple perspectives. e. The instructor will encourage the students to respond and give them guidance.
TLA4 : Individual Term Paper	a. After the small group presentation, discussion, feedback and reflection, students will develop certain extent of individual knowledge and values. Therefore, they should reflect what they have learnt in writing a clear logical essay with a bibliography and proper citation, which is well-structured and well-organised in fluent language. b. The topics are focusing on the research of a well-known woman in Chinese history. The selection of historical figures should match to student's oral presentation topic. By recognizing and commenting on historical figures, students will gain a deeper understanding of specific subjects and develop their ability to think as well as to make judgments. c. The instructor will teach			√			/

	students to internalize and use different resources (historical essays, poems, novels, plays etc.) so they can understand and compare the lives of historical figures as depicted in the documents and portrayed in different images. d. To keep track of their progress in preparing the paper, students should give an outline and references before submitting the paper.
TLA 5: One-day Study Tour	a. Arrange a site visits for one day to learn more about what was taught in the course. b. The place for the field trip will depend on the progress of the course, e.g. a visit to the Po Leung Kuk museum to learn about the history of the Hong Kong muizai 妹子 (servant girls). Another example is to visit villages in the New Territories to explore the status of women in traditional agricultural society. c. The instructor will provide guidance and explanations during the observation process. Students have to complete the portfolio designed by the instructor. d. After the tour, students must organize the materials and create a website in a group. The contents must include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The knowledge has been learnt from the course manifested in the tour. ● Related photos, recordings of images, interview records etc. from the tour. ● The reflection and feedback of individual students. 	√	√

A. Please specify the Gateway Education Programme Intended Learning Outcomes (PILOs) that the course is aligned to and relate them to the CILOs stated in Part II, Section 2 of this form:

GE PILO	Please indicate which CILO(s) is/are related to this PILO, if any (can be more than one CILOs in each PILO)
PILO 1: Demonstrate the capacity for self-directed learning	CILOs 3, 4
PILO 2: Explain the basic methodologies and techniques of inquiry of the arts and humanities, social sciences, business, and science and technology	CILO 3
PILO 3: Demonstrate critical thinking skills	CILOs 1, 2, 3, 4
PILO 4: Interpret information and numerical data	/
PILO 5: Produce structured, well-organised and fluent text	CILOs 3, 4
PILO 6: Demonstrate effective oral communication skills	/
PILO 7: Demonstrate an ability to work effectively in a team	CILO 3
