Covering the prehistoric to modern periods, this course aims to explore Chinese art in great depth and provide students with the methodological foundation for further historical research. With references to artistic productions and materials, it explains the major issues in Chinese history related to art, including the origin of Chinese civilization, historical/artistic remains (e.g. jade, pottery, bronze, sculpture, painting, calligraphy) and rituals, the various functions and/or meanings of these artifacts, socio-political thoughts and the practices in Chinese historical times etc. Students will become familiar with the deep culture of China represented by artistic materials.

A2: Ability

Develop the ability/skill needed to discover/innovate/create, as demonstrated by students possessing critical thinking skills to assess ideas, acquiring research skills, synthesizing knowledge across disciplines or applying academic knowledge to self-life problems.

A3: Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

3. Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs)
(TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)

TLA	Brief Description	CILO No.						Hours/week (if applicable)
		1	2	3	4	5
Lecture and in-class activities	In order to promote active learning and encourage new discovery, besides normal lectures, students will be engaged in in-class group activities, e.g. group discussions, simple quizzes and debates.	✓	✓	✓
Reading	Book chapters and articles related to the topic.		✓	✓	✓
Tutorial Presentation & Discussion	All tutorials are topic-oriented. Students are expected to study the assigned readings in advance, and all of them will take turns to be the presenter and lead the discussion throughout the course. Teachers will assess students' analytical skills and their understandings of assigned readings. Tutorials ensure that there is sufficient teacher-learner interaction and peer discussion. Group presentations and discussions will be conducted during tutorials. Students will submit in written form a revised presentation after receiving comments from their teachers and classmates. Both the oral and written presentations will be assessed. Students assigned as discussants should actively take part in discussions right after the presentation. They will submit to the lecturer their comments and discovery in written form.	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓

4. Assessment Tasks/Activities (ATs)
(ATs are designed to assess how well the students achieve the CILOs.)
