Company: Yau Lee Construction Company Limited

1. Assistant Quantity Surveyor

Requirements
- Degree in Quantity Surveying or Higher Diploma/Certificate in Building Studies or equivalent.
- Understanding and Exposure to pre-and post-contract works, particularly with the knowledge of various types of Contracts such as Design & Build.
- Knowledge about BIM would be an advantage.

Responsibilities
Provide general quantity surveying and contract administration services for pre and post contract, including taking off quantities from drawings, scrutiny/preparation of cost estimates, tenders, contracts and subcontract documents, evaluation of variation order and payment claims, and settlement of final accounts.

2. Assistant Engineer

- A degree in civil or structural engineering from Educational Institutions accredited/recognised by the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers
- Understanding the knowledge in the private sector works under the monitoring of the Building Authority.

Responsible for structural design work, planning construction projects, implementation of the company’s QA system and liaison with client’s representatives, supervision and site control.

3. Graduate Engineer

Requirements:
- Building or civil engineering graduate with a degree recognized by local or overseas professional institution such as HKIA, HKIE, ICE (UK), IStructE (UK), CIOB, etc.
- Strong self-motivation, reliable with good organization skill
- Independent and hardworking

Application:
Please send the following documents to training@yaulee.com
1. Cover letter/ email;
2. Transcript;
3. Certificates if any; and
4. Reference letters if any.