Bachelor of Social Sciences in Public Policy and Bachelor of Laws
社會科學學士(公共政策)與法律學學士

There is a legal dimension in the study of public policy. Public policy involves the legal authority to claim the right and the power to implement policy decisions. It also involves considerations and limitations as constrained by existing laws and constitution.

The legal rights of citizens are also taken into consideration when making and implementing public policies.

The Public Policy programme consists of three streams: Public Management, Politics, and Housing and Urban Studies. The Housing and Urban Studies Stream is professionally accredited by the Chartered Institute of Housing and the Hong Kong Institute of Housing.
