FAQ

Admission Interview

Q: What is admission interview?
A: Applicants are required to select an interview timeslot on the online application form. Interview timeslots are on a first-come-first-served basis.

All eligible applicants are invited to attend the admission interview conducted by the Career and Leadership Centre (CLC). It is the first step in the selection process. The admission interview will be held between 15-18 February 2022 and 21 February 2022. Please reserve the dates and refer to the "Admission Interview Confirmation Email" which will be sent on the week of 7th February 2022 for more details.

Job interview(s) will be arranged between nominated applicants and internship employers between March to April 2022. The internship offer is subject to the internship employer’s final decision.

Q: What is the format and language of the admission interview?
A: It is a group interview and will be conducted in English via Zoom.

Q: What should I prepare for the admission interview?
A: The admission interview consists of three parts, (1) self-introduction, (2) team discussion, and (3) short questions. This interview focuses on assessing your communication skill, interpersonal skill, and your capability and potential to work as a virtual intern.

Q: Do I need to submit my CV before the admission interview?
A: There is No need to submit your CV before the admission interview. We will provide a “Virtual GWAP Briefing and Training Session” in early March 2022 to shortlisted applicants to brief them on how to better prepare or polish their CV for submitting to the internship employers.

Admission Interview Arrangement

Q: What should I do if I cannot attend the admission interview?
A: The admission interview is arranged according to the selected interview session on your online application form. Please note that rescheduling of the interview session is not permitted unless valid reason(s) is/are provided, subject to the interview panel's decision. If you did not show up for the interview, you would be disqualified unless otherwise exceptionally justified. Please seek advice from GWAP Team by email to clc.gwap@cityu.edu.hk if you have any questions.

Admission Interview Result

Q: When will I know the admission interview result?
A: If you do not hear from us 2 weeks after the admission interview, you may assume your application was unsuccessful.
Q: What's next if I was selected?
A: Shortlisted applicants will be invited to join a “Virtual GWAP Briefing and Training Session” in early March 2022. The GWAP Team will provide detailed Programme information and answer all questions at the session. Shortlisted applicants can decide whether Virtual GWAP is suitable for their career interest and development before confirming their participation in the Programme.
