EUPLANT Lecture: Understanding China's Global Governance Ambitions in light of the Decline of the Rule of Law in Hong Kong

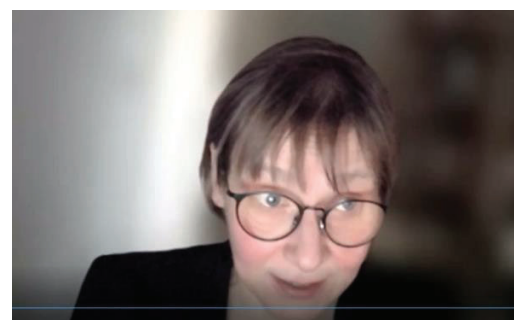

25 Nov 2021

Ms Esther Wong

CityU School of Law, in cooperation with EU-China Legal and Judicial Cooperation (EUPLANT) Project, have jointly held a lecture via Zoom on 23 November 2021. We were honoured to have Professor Eva PILS, Professor of Law at King's College London, to give a lecture titled "Understanding China's Global Governance Ambitions in light of the Decline of the Rule of Law in Hong Kong".

The Lecture was kicked off with welcome remarks by Dr HE Tianxiang (Assistant Professor, City U School of Law). Dr He introduced the background of the speaker and thanked all the participants for their support for the lecture.

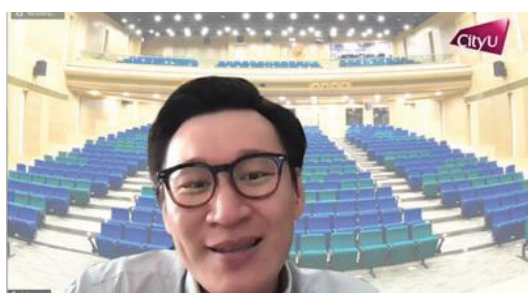

Professor Pils briefly introduced China's governance system and the impact to Hong Kong after the implementation of the Hong Kong National Security Law 2020. She then focused on the implications for China's broader global governance ambitions given the current developments in Hong Kong.
