Part II Course Details

1. Abstract

This course aims to equip students with knowledge of contemporary global communication and international media systems and the critical abilities to analyze contemporary issues in global communication. It will examine the political, economic, cultural and sociological forces behind global communication activities, including gathering and disseminating news, cross-border data transmission, and entertainment content among various mass communication systems in the world. From an interdisciplinary perspective, it introduces key concepts and theories on global communication and international media systems, and analyzes the impact of global communication on international relations, global economy, and social and cultural changes as well as national communication policies.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

(CILOs state what the student is expected to be able to do at the end of the course according to a given standard of performance.)

No.	CILOs	Weighting (if applicable)	Discovery-enriched curriculum related learning outcomes (please tick where appropriate)
			A1	A2	A3
1.	Develop comprehension of the basic concepts and theories on global communication	25%			✓
2.	Analyze trends of contemporary global communication and international media systems	25%	✓	✓
3.	Apply global communication theories to the analysis of various issues in global communication	25%		✓
4.	Conduct independent research on global communication and its impact	25%	✓	✓	✓
		100%

A1: Attitude

Develop an attitude of discovery/innovation/creativity, as demonstrated by students possessing a strong sense of curiosity, asking questions actively, challenging assumptions or engaging in inquiry together with teachers.

A2: Ability

Develop the ability/skill needed to discover/innovate/create, as demonstrated by students possessing critical thinking skills to assess ideas, acquiring research skills, synthesizing knowledge across disciplines or applying academic knowledge to self-life problems.

A3: Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

3. Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs)

(TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)

TLA	Brief Description	CILO No.				Hours/week (if applicable)
		1	2	3	4
Lectures and class discussions	Examine the basic theories and concepts on global communication and international media system in lectures and class discussions	✓				2 (for 6 weeks)
Lectures and class discussions	Analyze the trends of global communication in the globalizing world in lectures and class discussions		✓			2 (for 6 weeks)
Presentations and discussions	Explore and examine issues in global communication through presentations and discussions			✓	✓	1 (for 12 weeks)
Research	Conduct research on topical papers on themes and issues of global communication; Apply theories to the analysis of such important issues as the world communication and information order; philosophy and ideology of various mass communication systems; the nature and content of international news; the imbalanced flow of information in the world; mass media as an agent for national development; transborder data flow and its impact; the flow of entertainment material and accusations of cultural imperialism; the media and international conflict; and direct satellite communication and its implications			✓	✓	NA

4. Assessment Tasks/Activities (ATs)

5. Assessment Rubrics

(Grading of student achievements is based on student performance in assessment tasks/activities with the following rubrics.)

Assessment Task	Criterion	Excellent (A+, A, A-)	Good (B+, B, B-)	Fair (C+, C, C-)	Marginal (D)	Failure (F)
1. In-Class Participation	Attend lectures and participate in class discussions actively	High	Significant	Moderate	Basic	Not even reaching marginal levels
2. Work on a group assignment about global communication from practical and theoretical point of views	ABILITY to EXPLAIN in DETAIL and with ACCURACY methods of inquiry useful in analyzing research data	High	Significant	Moderate	Basic	Not even reaching marginal levels
3. Design and conduct a research project and write a full-blown research paper as an individual or a group project (20-25 pages)	CAPACITY for SELF-DIRECTED LEARNING to understand the principles of global communication	High	Significant	Moderate	Basic	Not even reaching marginal levels
4. Examination	ABILITY to demonstrate clear understanding of concepts related to global communication	High	Significant	Moderate	Basic	Not even reaching marginal levels

More specific grading criteria for selected assessment tasks/activities are as follows:

Course assignment:

- Originality
- Critical ability
- Organization
- Clarity in presentation
- APA style

Research paper

- Originality
- Critical ability
- Application of theories
- Data/evidence
- APA style

Weighting of the different criteria and other details will be given to the students during class.
