Part III Other Information (more details can be provided separately in the teaching plan)

1. Keyword Syllabus

(An indication of the key topics of the course.)

The course is divided into two parts: Part I will be offered in semester A while part II will be offered in semester B. Part I will be conducted in large class and Part II will be in small groups.

Part I

1.1 Understanding fieldwork learning

12 hours related to fieldwork learning including how to learn best in fieldwork, types of fieldwork, code of practice, different service settings, agency visit.

1.2 Professional development and Self-understanding

9 hours related to recordings writing and self-understanding. For professional writings, it aims to help students familiarize with formats and languages of various types of written assignments in field practice. The self-understanding part helps students reflect on their values, attitudes and communication styles. Students will review their strengths and weaknesses, and review important social work values and ethics.

Part II

1.3 Practical skills

18 hours of this part of learning which provide students with opportunities to revisit the skills they have learned, and apply them in hands-on activities. Topics cover skills and issues in in relation to case work, group work, community work, mental health issues and first aid.

2. Reading List
