Part II Course Details

Abstract

The course aims to introduce students to major theoretical concepts and critical practices in literary studies. Students will explore and discuss specific writers, genres or themes in the context of literary history and criticism. The critical perspectives that this course explores include structuralism, gender studies, postcolonialism, narratology, psychoanalysis, postmodernism and reader-response theory. Through applying these different theoretical perspectives to the literary texts covered in this course, students will acquire the interpretative and critical analytical skills that are crucial to literature research and writing. Students will generate critical, analytical and creative responses to selected texts throughout the course.

Assessment Rubrics (AR)Assessment Task

Analysis Paper

Criterion

Thesis and Argumentation

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) Thesis is clear and appropriate for the writing task. There is a sense of originality in the way the writer has answered the question. Ideas are well supported and conclusions reveal a progression of ideas

Good

(B+, B, B-) The responses contain sharp ideas that are clearly expressed, original, and thoughtfully supported.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Elements of B and D

Marginal

(D) The topic is clear but there is little originality in the way that the writer has answered the question. Ideas are not always supported. There is little sense of progression as the paper develops.

Failure

(F) The essay appears to be off topic or only loosely related to the task. The writer may have misunderstood the question.

Assessment Task

Analysis Paper - continued

Criterion

Engagement

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) Sophisticated critical reading and interpretative skills apparent.

Good

(B+, B, B-) The discussion of the primary texts and secondary source materials is appropriate and sufficiently detailed. There is a sense of the writer critically engaging with the texts.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Elements of B and D

Marginal

(D) Some discussion of the primary texts and secondary source materials, but mostly in general and broad terms. The selection of the texts may not be appropriate for the task.

Failure

(F) Very little if any engagement with the primary texts.

Assessment Task

Analysis Paper - continued

Criterion

Organisation

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) Organization supports thesis in a logical and compelling way. The organization between sentences, paragraphs, and ideas is cohesive and effective in terms of advancing the writer's arguments.

Good

(B+, B, B-) Organization clearly supports thesis. Transitions between ideas are clear and are appropriately expressed.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Elements of B and D

Marginal

(D) There may be abrupt or illogical shifts in ideas. Parts of the response may be illogically connected or tangential. Mechanical and inappropriate use of transitional phrases.

Failure

(F) Ideas are not clearly marked or contextualised.

Assessment Task

Criterion

Language

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) Exceptionally well composed. Words are used with precision and accuracy. A wide variety of sentence structures are used.

Good

(B+, B, B-) Strong control of language and a wide lexical range. Grammatical structures are varied and well constructed. Small errors may persist but the meaning is sharp and clear.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Effective and functional control. Basic ideas are communicated effectively. Errors cause minimal distraction.

Marginal

(D) There is a high density of errors, causing strain for the reader. The meaning is sometimes lost or unclear

Failure

(F) Almost every sentence has some kind of error, which causes serious problems for the reader. The meaning is often lost or distorted.

Assessment Task

Participation

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) Makes significant contribution to in-class discussion and completes tasks satisfactorily.

Good

(B+, B, B-) Makes occasional contribution to in-class discussion and completes the tasks satisfactorily.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Seldom makes contribution to in-class group discussion and in class tasks.

Marginal

(D) Little evidence of participation in class; completes very few in-class tasks.

Failure

(F) Fails to complete in-class tasks or participate in class discussions.

Assessment Task

Group Presentation

Criterion

Content

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) The topic is well-researched, and analysis and explanation are supported by details. Ideas are insightful and original.

Good

(B+, B, B-) Good research skills apparent. Content is thoughtful. There maybe some lack of details.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Elements of B and D

Marginal

(D) Content is lacking details or consideration. Research appears to be superficial.

Failure

(F) The content is insufficient and/or substantially lacking in detail. Lacking evidence of research.

Criterion

Language and Delivery

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) Exceptionally well presented. Ideas are communicated with precision and accuracy. Excellent non-verbal communication.

Good

(B+, B, B-) Strong control of language and effectively communicated. Small errors persist but the meaning is clear. Effective non-verbal communication.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Elements and functional control of presentation. Basic ideas are communicated effectively. Errors cause minimal distraction. Satisfactory non-verbal communication.

Marginal

(D) There is a high density of errors, causing strain for the audience. The meaning is sometimes lost or unclear. Non-verbal communication is weak.

Failure

(F) There are serious problems in comprehension for the audience. The meaning is often lost or distorted.

Assessment Task

Group Presentation - continued

Criterion

Organization

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) Visually appealing and highly effective team management. Smooth and effective transitions and strong cohesions.

Good

(B+, B, B-) Visually appealing and effectively organized with some inconsistencies. Good transitions and sense of cohesion. Good team management is apparent.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Elements of B and D.

Marginal

(D) Lacking in clear organization. Design is inappropriate and/or ineffective. Team management may appear uneven. Presentation appears fragmented and lacking in cohesion.

Failure

(F) The organization is confusing, unclear, or non-existent. There is an obvious lack of teamwork and cohesion.

Assessment Task

Final test

Criterion

Content and Analysis

Excellent

(A+, A, A-) Shows an excellent understanding of selected literary texts, main concepts, theoretical approaches and their application. The argument and ideas are fully supported by relevant examples and analyses.

Good

(B+, B, B-) Shows a good understanding of selected literary texts, main concepts, theoretical approaches and their application. The argument and ideas are well supported by relevant examples and analyses.

Fair

(C+, C, C-) Shows a fair understanding of selected literary texts, main concepts, theoretical approaches and their application. The argument and ideas are partially supported by relevant examples and analysis.

Marginal

(D) Shows little understanding of selected literary texts, main concepts, theoretical approaches and their application. There is minimal attempt to provide support or examples to substantiate the claims and analysis.

Failure

(F) Failed to fulfil the requirements of the test questions or show a complete lack of understandings of selected literary texts, main concepts, or theoretical approaches.
