Part III Other InformationKeyword Syllabus

This course will take the form of an on-site workshop of approximately 1 or 2 days duration in Hong Kong or other international cities. Participants are required to do pre-work in searching information about the host company and relevant theory before undertaking the visit, accompanied by their lecturer. A seminar will be given by the top management of the host company and they will share with participants their managerial experience and the real case studies of the company. At the end of the talk, students will be invited to actively participate in the Q&A session, discuss with the speaker(s) and interact with other participants. Speaker(s) will then give assignment questions to students to write a report.

Full attendance at the workshop and submission of an individual report of about 1500 – 2000 words. Each participant has to submit a report based on the questions assigned by the management of the host company. In addition, students are required to form a group of 3 to 5 persons and give a group presentation. All members have to take part in the group presentation.

Students will be allowed to take a maximum of 2 credit units for the course.
