

AIA SCHOLARSHIPS 2022/23

 HK$50,000
per academic year

 Renewable for each academic year
to support the full course of undergraduate study

About AIA Scholarships:

Launched in 2020, the AIA Scholarships programme aims to sponsor Hong Kong students with excellent academic performance and who are actively involved in community service to pursue university education in Hong Kong.

100 scholarships will be awarded to outstanding local undergraduate students at 10 local universities every year to help them to optimise their university experience and encourage them to contribute to their local community.

Open now!

For Year 1 undergraduate students

Three AIA Scholars from the first cohort (2020/21)

Eligibility:

- All students in any academic discipline.
- Full time 2022/23 Year 1 undergraduate student, pursuing his/ her first undergraduate degree immediately succeeding completion of his/ her senior secondary school education.
- Permanent resident of Hong Kong.
- Minimum GPA of 3.2 on a 4.3 scale or equivalent in the first semester of Year 1.
- Community service or charitable work experience.
- When two or more applicants are assessed as being of equal merit, priority will be given to applicant(s) with financial needs to complete university education.

Application Deadline: 10 February 2023

Application:

1. Open-application: Interested students can submit applications with supporting documents to sdsfinance@cityu.edu.hk directly. Late applications will not be considered.
2. Nomination: Students can be nominated by the home College or School. Kindly note the deadline set by the respective College or School.

Enquiries: sdsfinance@cityu.edu.hk