

City University of Hong Kong Law Review

ARTICLES

Sustainable Development in International Law: From Origin to Operation

Qerim Qerimi

Elaborating on Hong-Kong's Experience: Parties to the Crime and the Need to Distinguish Between the Solicitor and the Perpetrator by Means of Another

Mohammed Saif-Alden Wattad

Buen Vivir* and Subaltern Cosmopolitan Legality in Urban Cultural Governance and Redevelopment Frameworks:
The Equitable Right to Diverse Iterations of Culture in the City and a New Urban Legal Anthropological Approach

Sara Gwendolyn Ross

The Doctrine of Good Faith in Contract: Greater Acknowledgment in Hong Kong? A Comparative Study

Raphael Hui

NOTES

C and Others v Director of Immigration and Another:*
A Step Forward in Hong Kong's Refugee Screening Process

Jeff H.Y. Chan

Pong v Chan or Lin v Kin?*
A Common Law Solution to Harassment

Harry Hey Chan