

YOUNG SCHOLAR FORUM

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The Young Scholar Forum was established by the Centre for Chinese and Comparative Law (CCCL) to provide junior scholars with a platform to present on topics related to Chinese Law, Comparative Law, or International Law discuss their work with peers and receive feedback on their research from the City University of Hong Kong law faculty. The Forum aims to connect participants with similar research interests to facilitate fruitful collaborations.

SCHEDULES

The Young Scholar Forum hosts four sessions per year at the following times. The sessions will be held virtually on Zoom. There will be one speaker per session. The speaker will present for 45 minutes, followed by a 15 minutes discussion.

- 17:30 – 18:30 (HKT), Last Thursday in March every year
- 17:30 – 18:30 (HKT), Last Thursday in June every year
- 17:30 – 18:30 (HKT), Last Thursday in September every year
- 17:30 – 18:30 (HKT), Last Thursday in December every year

ELIGIBILITY

Submissions are invited from junior scholars on any topic that relates to Chinese Law, Comparative Law, or International Law. Junior scholars are encouraged to submit an abstract of an unpublished work, but we consider abstracts of recently published work too. There is NO requirement to submit a complete paper to the CCCL before or after the presentation.

Eligible applicants should be doctoral candidates, postdoctoral researchers, and full-time academic staffs (teaching and/or research) who have not held an academic position for more than 7 years.

SUBMISSION

The call for abstract for the Young Scholar Forum is currently open. We accept submissions on a rolling basis.

To apply to the Forum, please submit an abstract of no more than 500 words reflecting the work that you wish to present and a copy of your CV by clicking "Submit Now" or scanning the QR code.
