

CCCL LEGAL RESEARCH TALK

INTRODUCTION TO EMPIRICAL LAW AND ECONOMICS

Empirical work has grown in importance in legal research. This seminar explains the need for empirical law and economics. Moreover, it briefly introduces the reverse causality problem researchers face, and a research method called difference-in-difference analysis. Students with no background in law and economics are welcome.

Our Speaker:

Dr LAI Sin Chit Martin,
Assistant Professor,
City University of Hong Kong

Chairperson:

Professor WANG Jiangyu
Centre for Chinese and Comparative Law,
City University of Hong Kong

About the Speaker

Dr LAI Sin Chit Martin is an assistant professor at the City University of Hong Kong. Martin specializes in Competition Law and Law & Economics, with a particular interest in enforcement-related issues. His research has appeared in respected journals such as the Journal of Competition Law and Economics, University of Pennsylvania Journal of Business Law, and Berkeley Business Law Journal. Martin has received his BEcon & Fin and MEcon from the University of Hong Kong, Juris Master from Tsinghua University, and LLM and SJD from the University of Pennsylvania. Martin also received some European Union competition law training from the University of Munich.

22 February 2023
(Wednesday)
1 PM - 2:30 PM HKT
Virtually Via Zoom
(Open to all SLW students)
Register now AT
<https://bit.ly/3XbTxm1>