

Prof. Fozia Nazir Lone Appointed Adjunct Associate Professor at the University of Tasmania School of Law

28 September 2026

The Public Law and Human Rights Forum (CPLR) at City University of Hong Kong is pleased to announce that Prof. Fozia Nazir Lone, Associate Professor and Associate Director of CPLR, has been appointed Adjunct Associate Professor at the University of Tasmania (UTAS) School of Law for the term from September 1, 2026 to January 31, 2029.

This appointment acknowledges Prof. Lone's expanding international reputation in water law and environmental governance. During her appointment, Prof. Lone will focus on water law governance, intergenerational equity, and ecosystem-based river governance from a comparative perspective.

This partnership positions CityUHK as an emerging hub for Asian water law and reinforces CPLR's commitment to impactful international research.

Please join us in congratulating Prof. Lone on this well-deserved recognition.
