

Common Law in Hong Kong: Past, Present and Future

by Dr Rimsky YUEN, GBM, SC, JP

7 April 2022 (Thursday) | 5pm - 6pm HKT
Online via Zoom (in English)

The talk will be divided into 3 main parts.

The first part will address the development of common law from its colonial day to 1997, and then from 1997 to now.

The second part will address the key characteristics of common law in Hong Kong.

The third part will explore the future development of common law in Hong Kong.

Speaker:

Dr Rimsky YUEN, GBM, SC, JP

Barrister – Senior Counsel, Temple Chambers

- Co-Chair of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre
- Chairman of the Hong Kong Mediation Accreditation Association Limited
- Council Member of the Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration
- Member of the Exchange Fund Advisory Committee
- Adjunct Professor of the Law School of Beijing Normal University

After resigning as Secretary for Justice on 5 January 2018, Rimsky Yuen SC resumed private practice in April 2018 at Temple Chambers as barrister, arbitrator and mediator specializing in commercial disputes. Since then, in addition to appointments as arbitrator in both ad hoc and institutional arbitrations conducted in Hong Kong and beyond, Rimsky Yuen SC has been retained as advising counsel or advocate in numerous commercial disputes (in both court and arbitral proceedings). In addition, Rimsky Yuen SC acts as mediator from time to time in commercial and corporate disputes.
