Check Points

Lighthouse
It is one of the landmarks of Tung Lung Chau. The white lighthouse is connected to the shore by a small bridge. When the waves come, the waves will surging over the small bridge, which is quite dangerous, so the lighthouse is only suitable for viewing from afar.

Tung Lung Fort
According to record, it was built in Qing Dynasty (between 1662 and 1722) and defended pirates.

Ancient Rock Carving
It is the largest ancient rock carving in Hong Kong which measures 180 cm by 240 cm. Pattern is complicated and resembles dragons.
