01 General Application

Eligibility

Full-time government-funded Bachelor’s degree students

Non-local students (Cohort 2022)
* You can check your cohort in AIMS
  Login AIMS -> Student Record -> My Status
  -> My Student Status
Example:
  Programme: Bachelor of Social Sciences (BSSU4)
  Cohort: 2022

Target

Priority of the 2nd study year:
- Fill score B (Leadership Qualities and Potential Contribution to Residence Life)

Allocation Criteria
1. Non-local students admitted to full-time government-funded bachelor's degree programmes are eligible to apply for Student Residence, with higher priority granted during their first two years of study (i.e. Academic year 2022/23 and 2023/24) under the current Hall Admission Policy.

2. All students are required to submit hall application by deadline, otherwise, NO bedplace will be reserved even they have higher priority in first two years of study.

3. Higher priority will ONLY be granted in first two years of study (i.e. Academic year 2022/23 and 2023/24), and the priority given CANNOT be transferred to subsequent years of study (i.e. 3rd year of study or thereafter).

4. For subsequent years of study (i.e. 3rd year of study or thereafter), it will depend on the achievement / contribution / performance made in previous residence life (if any) under respective returning scheme. Non-local students are expected to secure their own housing in the market and are advised to prepare funds to cover such accommodation.

Helpful TIPS

Plan carefully before taking leave of absence / outbound exchange etc.

03 Appeal, Vetting, Room Assignment
03 Appeal, Vetting, Room Assignment

Appeal

- Appeal against one’s application results can only be made to the Appeal Panel via AIMS to the Student Residence Office by a specific deadline, but will only be considered with new/additional supporting documents.

- The decisions of the Appeal Panel will be final.

- Appeal Period: 16 - 23 May 2023
Vetting

• Vetting will be conducted by SRO throughout the application processing and residential period.

• Hall Application is an HONEST system. Students are required to submit true, accurate and correct information in AIMs.

Note: DO keep all document proofs relating to your hall application.

• Should students fail to respond to SRO’s request for vetting, they could be considered as submitting inaccurate information or failure to respond to vetting will lead to immediate disqualification and removal from the hall, and their residence applications will not be accepted throughout their entire study period.

Note: All hall fees paid under this circumstance will NOT be refunded.

• Serious cases will be escalated to Student Discipline Committee, which may affect the opportunities for award, scholarship, exchange or internship application.

• All information provided by the applicants must be true, correct, accurate and complete. Applicants shall verify all the information before submission. You shall ensure all information is correct before submission, unintentional / careless mistake will not be accepted as the reason under vetting. Submission of incorrect information is a misbehavior which may lead to disciplinary actions.
Room Assignment

• Rule of thumb: All applicants will be assigned to double-room double-occupancy if no preference is indicated.

• Applicants' preferences on hall, room type and roommate will be considered as far as possible.

• There is no guarantee that one will be assigned to a particular hall, unit, room type, or with a specific roommate. Final room assignment is subject to room availability and hall admission policies.

• SRO and the Residence Masters reserve the right to make alternative assignment decisions or re-assign students when necessary.

• No room assignment will be made if applicants fail to confirm their hall offer.
04 Outbound Exchange Arrangement
If you wish to stay in Student Residence, DO submit hall application via AIMS to compete for a bedplace this round as hall application is administered once a year for current students.

If your enrollment status in AIMS is "On formal exchange programme", you are NOT eligible for hall residence during this period. You should check out from the hall residence and no refund of remaining hall lodging fee.
