

Biographies of the 2020 Honorary Fellows

Ms Jenny Chan Pik-ha, Sales Director of KGI Asia Limited, is a member of the Hong Kong Institute of Directors and the Hong Kong Securities & Futures Professionals Association.

After much hard work, Ms Chan received the Executive Master of Business Administration degree from CityU in 2009. During her studies, she was nominated for the Executive Leadership Programme at the University of California, Berkeley (UC Berkeley) based on her distinguished performance. She became the Stanley Wang Fellow, a highly regarded fellowship conferred by UC Berkeley.

A staunch supporter of CityU, Ms Chan is currently a member of the CityU Court, the CityU Foundation, and the CityU Chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma. She is a former Chairman of the CityU Eminence Society and she helped the College of Business (CB) establish its Teaching Excellence Award and Research Excellence Award. She was involved in CB's accreditation exercises, including the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, Association of MBAs, and the EFMD European Quality Improvement System.

The multimedia studio Chan Hok Yan Executive Classroom in CB was named after her father in appreciation of Ms Chan's contributions to the University.

Mr Lau Tat-chuen is currently the Director of Sino International Industrial (Group) HK Limited, which he founded in 2004. The Group's core business encompasses equity investment, property development, hospital services, and health and caring services for the elderly.

Over the years, Mr Lau has actively participated in public and community services and given considerable support to education and the development of the community. Mr Lau is now Chairman of Welfare Enterprises Associated Limited, Director of Pok Oi Hospital, Permanent President of Shine Tak Foundation, and Executive Director of the Hong Kong Fujian Charitable Education Fund.

Mr Lau has been actively supporting the development of the University. He is an Honorary Patron of the CityU Foundation and a CityU Court member. He established an international exchange scholarship to help those students who are economically underprivileged, and has generously donated to the Department of Management Sciences for launching the "Community Nurses-Satellite Distribution" pilot project. In appreciation of Mr Lau's contributions, the University named Lecture Theatre 5 in the Yeung Kin Man Academic Building as "Mr and Mrs Lau Tat Chuen Lecture Theatre".

Dr Jennifer Ng Chui-yiu, JP, Vice-Chairman and CEO of Marshall-Karson Construction and Engineering Ltd, is an established entrepreneur, noted for both a remarkable career and a generous philanthropic spirit. Spending her undergraduate years in Montreal, Dr Ng received her master's degree from the University of Technology Sydney and her doctorate in business administration from CityU.

With a passion for promoting the development of Hong Kong and its integration with mainland China, Dr Ng has made significant contributions to public service, education and charity. Among her many devoted roles within community service are her positions as Chairperson of the Board of Directors of Pok Oi Hospital from 2004 to 2005, Founder of the Association of China Trend Studies (HK) in 2011, and Advisor to Our Hong Kong Foundation from 2014 to the present.

Through her generous donations to CityU, Dr Ng has helped to promote academic pursuits in Chinese culture and history, and heritage research and preservation.

She is currently a CityU Court member and Honorary President of the CityU Foundation. She was appointed Justice of the Peace in 2017 and received the World Outstanding Chinese Award in 2005 for her contributions to the well-being of society. She was conferred an Honorary Doctor of Science by Armstrong University, US in 2005.
