

Experience Sharing:

GE1201 Information Management and its Social Impact

Dr Ron Kwok

Department of Information Systems

GE1201: Information Management and its Social Impact

- This course aims to:
  - Develop students' InfoQ, the ability to identify, retrieve, evaluate, utilize and create quality information for effective, efficient decision-making and problem solving, from the science, engineering and business perspectives

Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

- Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:
  1. Describe the theories of information management
  2. Explain the conceptual framework of information management from the science, engineering and business perspectives
  3. Apply the general methodologies and strategies to identify, retrieve, evaluate, utilize and create quality information for decision making and problem-solving

Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs) (cont)

- Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:
  4. Design and develop particular information management solutions to support life-long learning
  5. Work productively as part of team in a collaborative and virtual environment with a global context

Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs)

1. Seminar: Concepts and general theories of information management. The applications from science, engineering and business perspectives are explained.
2. Computer Lab Exercise: Technical aspects of information management are covered.
3. Guest Talk/Company Visit: Social impacts of information management.

Out-Class Activities: Language Companion Course (LCC)

on-line language specialist tutor

subject teacher

- Practice “Group Information Management” via Global Virtual Team Work
- Provide online English tutors from overseas who comment on students’ course work before they submit it to their teachers
- An innovative approach to enhance students' English writing skills" (organized by the Offices of the Dean of Student Learning (DSL) and Chief Information Officer (CIO))

Global Virtual Team Work

CityU student

Assessment Tasks/Activities:

- Tutorial Assignments and Participation (20%)
- Group Assignment (50%)
- Take-Home Exam (30%)

Experience Sharing

Based on my Feedback to VPUE Office

