Part II Course Details

Abstract

This course discusses the selected Chinese classic works related to literature, cultural heritage and history, as well as their historical context, genre and major characteristics. Studying the classics is the best and most effective way to understand the core values and spirit of Chinese literature, cultural heritage and history which form the basis of the minds and behaviours of the Chinese people at large, both past and present. In addition, all selected works are written in both ancient and modern Chinese. It aims to enhance students' Chinese ability in order to provide a good foundation for their learning in the forthcoming four years.

Learning and Teaching Activities (LTAs)

LTAs	Brief Description	CILO No.	Hours/week (if applicable)
1	Lectures Students will learn the historical context, genre and major characteristics of a selected classic work at each lecture. A series of discussion questions will be posted on the course website in advance that will be used during the lecture time in order to inspire students to think and express their opinions in class. Summary: Students are required to carry out reflective writing on what they have learnt in class.	1, 2, 3, 4
2	Tutorials All tutorials are topic-oriented. Students are expected to study the assigned readings in advance, and all of them will take turns to be the presenter and lead the discussion throughout the course. Teachers will assess students' analytical skills and their understandings of assigned readings. Tutorials ensure that there is sufficient teacher-learner interaction and peer discussion. Group presentations and discussions will be conducted during tutorials. Both the oral and written presentations will be assessed. Students assigned as discussants should actively take part in discussions right after the presentation.	1, 2, 3, 4

3	Written Assignment	Students will complete written assignment, which will put into practice the various persuasive techniques taught in class. Students will show their understandings of the ancient texts and enhance their writing skills.	1, 2, 3
4	Reading	Students will engage with books and articles related to the topic.	2, 3, 4
