Assessment Tasks / Activities (ATs)

	ATs	CILO No.	Weighting (%)	Remarks ("- for nil entry)	Allow Use of GenAI?
1	Participation	1, 2, 3, 4	10	Individual: Based on how frequently, actively, and constructively students participate in class and online after-class discussion. In-class and online after class activities measure students' ability to apply newly learned principles to real contexts and situations.	Yes
2	Group Project	1, 4, 5, 6, 7	30	Group work: Students will have the opportunity to apply their knowledge to critically analyze and evaluate authentic language data. Students will apply analytical methods in their analysis. Students will also have the opportunity to identify and reflect on language and media and language and identity. (Word limit: 1800 – 2300)	No

Assessment Rubrics (AR)Assessment Task

Participation

Criterion

Attendance and active class participation

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

An excellent record of attendance and participation. Attended all classes punctually, always participated actively and constructively in class and group activities.

Good (B+, B, B-)

Satisfactory attendance and punctuality. Generally participated actively and constructively in class and group activities.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

Satisfactory attendance and punctuality. Frequently participated actively and constructively in class and group activities.

Marginal (D)

Attendance and punctuality not fully satisfactory and/or participation in class and group activities was inconsistent.

Failure (F)

Attendance and punctuality were unsatisfactory. Did not meaningfully engage with class and group activities.

Assessment Task

Group Project

Criterion

Written report on a topic that presents data collected and analyzed using a sociolinguistic perspective.

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

Able to analyze and present a sociolinguistic issue very clearly and insightfully, applying the theoretical framework, accurately giving evidence from data collected, accounting for successes and difficulties in communication, making excellent suggestions for improving the interaction and synthesizing points into a coherent argument expressed in clear and accurate English and within the word limit.

Good (B+, B, B-)

Able to analyze and present a sociolinguistic issue clearly, applying the theoretical framework fairly accurately giving evidence from data collected, accounting for successes and difficulties in communication, making good suggestions for improving the interaction and synthesizing points into a relatively coherent argument expressed in clear and mostly accurate English and within the word limit.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

There may be some inaccuracies in understanding the sociolinguistic issue under investigation. Sufficient evidence may not be provided. The paper may lack focus or be poorly argued. There may be problems with the organization or grammar of the paper. The paper may exceed the word limit.

Marginal (D)

There are serious flaws and/or inaccuracies in understanding the sociolinguistic issue under investigation. Sufficient evidence is not provided. The paper lacks focus or is poorly argued. There are serious problems with the organization or grammar of the paper. The paper is incomplete or incomprehensible due to a large number of language inaccuracies.

Failure (F)

Unable to apply the theories in an accurate way, present a coherent analysis and/or communicate in written English to an acceptable standard.

Assessment Task

Group Presentation

Criterion

Organization/Delivery/Grammar/Effectiveness/Timing of presentation

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

The presentation provides a very clear and insightful analysis. It draws effectively upon evidence from various types of data collected, accounting for successes and difficulties in communication, and synthesizing findings into a coherent argument. The presentation is very well organized, delivered in clear and accurate, fluent and idiomatic English, and within the time limit.

Good (B+, B, B-)

The presentation provides a clear analysis. It draws upon evidence from various types of data collected, accounting for successes and difficulties in communication, and synthesizing findings into an argument. The presentation is well organized, delivered in largely accurate, fluent and idiomatic English, and within the time limit.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

The presentation provides an adequate analysis. It draws upon some evidence from data collected, accounting for successes and difficulties in communication, and synthesizing findings into a coherent argument. The presentation is adequately organized and comprehensible, but the standard of the spoken English may need improvement. It may exceed the time limit.

Marginal (D)

The presentation provides a poor analysis. It exhibits insufficient evidence from data collected, and may lack an explanation for successes and difficulties in communication, or a coherent argument. The presentation is incomplete or partially incomprehensible due to poor organization or the standard of the spoken English.

Failure (F)

The presentation does not identify an issue relevant to the course. The presentation is incomplete or largely incomprehensible due to poor organization or significant problems in the standard of the spoken English.

Assessment Task

Final Test

Criterion

The final test will be marked according to the accuracy of the answers. Correct answers will be awarded full marks of the respective questions, half-correct answers will be awarded half of the marks devoted to the respective questions, and wrong or irrelevant answers will be awarded zero.
