Department of Social and Behavioural Sciences

Admission to BSocSc Criminology & Sociology / Psychology / Social Work

2020 Entry
The Department of Social and Behavioural Sciences currently offers 4 JUPAS programmes:

- Department of Social and Behavioural Sciences (options: BSocSc Criminology and Sociology, BSocSc Psychology, BSocSc Social Work) (admission code: JS1110)
- BSocSc Criminology and Sociology (admission code: JS1111)
- BSocSc Psychology (admission code: JS1112)
- BSocSc Social Work (admission code: JS1113)
• Students can now apply for either an undeclared major or a designated major.

• Those admitted into JS1110 will have a free choice of the 3 majors offered by the Department after one year of study.

  • Criminology & Sociology
  • Psychology
  • Social Work
• JS1111, JS1112 and JS1113 allow students who have a special interest in Criminology and Sociology / Psychology / Social Work to directly enter the major in year 1.

• The first-year curriculum of JS1110 – JS1113 are identical. All students will take 3 Departmental foundation courses (an overview of the 3 majors) together with some College foundation and Gateway Education (GE) courses.

• Students interested in any of the three majors can include either a major (JS1111/JS1112/JS1113) or Department studies (JS1110), or both, in their JUPAS programme choices.
