Associate of Science in Surveying

The programme provides you with:

1. A sound education covering a wide range of surveying subjects
2. Practical professional skills
3. A route to become a surveying professional
4. A path to study a degree programme in surveying
5. An opportunity for summer internship
6. An exposure to different parts of the world, e.g. study tours, technical visits, etc.
7. Interpersonal skills, teamwork and leadership

Core Courses

1. Technology for Living Environment
2. Science for Human Comfort
3. Building Communication
4. Economics
5. Legal Studies
6. Building Measurement 1
7. Building and Environmental Control
8. Design and Specification
9. Construction Technology
10. Construction Materials & Structures
11. Building Services
12. Property Management
13. Building Cost Studies
14. Maintenance Technology and Management
15. Real Estate Valuation
16. Estate Agency and Marketing
17. Planning and Development
18. Construction Contract Administration
19. Procurement Practice

Corporate Member of The Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors
Associate Member of The Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors
Assessment of Professional Competence (The Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors)

Career Prospects

Work in Public or Private Organizations

Further Studies

Advanced Entry to Recognized Surveying Degrees