Summer Schools

The Department offers overseas summer schools with the aims to broaden students’ international learning experience and to enhance students’ personal development. Students are expected to attend lectures, conduct site visits, and participate field trips during the one month summer school. Our current partners include University of Amsterdam (The Netherlands), University of Leeds (United Kingdom), National Taiwan University (Taiwan), and National Sun Yat-sen University (Taiwan).