About the Press

City University of Hong Kong Press was founded in 1996 as the publishing arm of the City University of Hong Kong. Our mission is to promote scholarship, to disseminate knowledge and creative works, and to enhance knowledge transfer.

The Press publishes three types of publications: academic works, professional books, and books of general interest and social concern. These cover a wide range of fields including business, history, cultural studies, education, law, science and engineering, political science, and social sciences, with a focus on China studies, Hong Kong studies, Asian studies, politics, and public policy. The Press endeavours to produce works of social impact, regional and international significance, and lasting value.

新書發佈會

Mysteries From My Childhood— How I Found Out My Parents Were Spies in World War II

John T. LEE Retired engineer

With the onset of the Second Sino-Japanese War and later occupation of Hong Kong, the focus of both the Kuomintang and the Chinese Communist Party shifted to resistance efforts in order to survive. And who did they turn to for help?

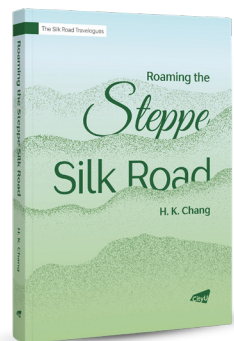

The author reveals that his father was both an accomplished artist and a covert operative for the Republic of China and the Allies during World War II.

Focusing on lesser-known aspects of Chinese and American history, this book appeals to both historians and general readers.
